

Cuba s Role in the Bolivarian Radical Populist Movement s Dismantling of Democracy: El Papel de Cuba En El Movimiento Populista y Radical Bolivariano Para Desmantelar La Democracia (Paperback)

By Douglas Farah

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ENGLISH How a once moribund revolution fueled by petro dollars remade Latin America and the strategic challenge posed to the united states While Venezuela is generally viewed as the architect of the Bolivarian movement, the Cuban role transformed the radical populist movement into a tier-one challenge to the United States. THE AUTHOR Douglas Farah is an American journalist, author and national security consultant. Farah served as United Press International bureau chief in El Salvador from 1985 to 1987, and a freelance journalist for The Washington Post, Newsweek, and other publications until being hired as a staff correspondent for The Washington Post in 1992. While working for the Post, Farah served as bureau chief of Central American and the Caribbean until 1997, international investigative reporter between 1998 and 2000, and of West Africa between 2000 and 2003. He left the Post in 2004, and has since authored two books and served as a contributor to peer reviewed publications such as the Journal of International Affairs and analysis pieces for Foreign Policy and the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS). He is currently...
