He then got over the gate and walked toward the mansion. The moon had sunk behind a bank of clouds that skirted the lower part of the western sky, and the night was now comparatively dark. The mansion was without signs of life, except the faint light that glimmered from the sitting-room window, and from the room which St. Leger had so lately deserted. A gentle breeze rustled 94 OLD BEN MANX among the leaves and branches of the trees. Hope the hoy made a good selection o critters, muttered old Ben, as he walked around the corner of the house, toward the sheds in the rear, fur he hes a long ride an a tough one afore him Don t see nuthin suspishus about the jilace. Reckon that the captain will hev a couple o hours start, any how. Gosh f what s that? Hope thar hain t any dogs hyar! Ben stopped and listened. He heard something that sounded marvelously like the growl of a dog. Oh! oh! ef thar s any o them varmint about, I ll jest make myself skerce. Never did like dorgs, which, howsomdever, wouldn t make no diffrence, only that the pesky critters never liked me. Spec this hyar pack on my back makes them sort o narvous. Oh! git out! git out! Gosh! Ben s soliloquy was suddenly interrupted by seeing the outlines of a dark body rushing from a shed, directly at..
