Seven Oaks, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ornis, the demonic game player, seeks to make witches and mystics be seen as evil. He wins some and loses some-finding it all too amusing. Humans are mere pawns in his game. Seeing increasing problems for her family, Elke Hemstreet believes she has an answer-- create a play from a bestselling fantasy novel, which will help the world better understand the realm of magic and spirit workers. Witches have had too much bad press. This is a way to change that. The mysterious and reclusive Mitchell Ford, author of Vislogus, refuses her request. He s seen the other side and fought it. Writing about it has made him a target. He ll not risk that happening to anyone else-especially not a woman he finds all too appealing. Mysticism, ethics, love and family are all part of To Speak of Things Unseen as Mitch and Elke head from Tucson to the Verde Valley to look for ways to make humans safer, even those who would kill them if they could. This book is Book 2 in the Barrio Viejo series. Book 1 is Enchantress Secret. There will be 5 books when the series is complete-each standing alone, with a happily ever after, but with continuing characters and problems. Level 4 heat with some violence, strong spiritual themes.
