Austin Macauley Publishers, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. From the moment Gareth's family move house, his world changes. His new friend, Kit, was already familiar, from her appearance in the models he'd made. The strange dreams that had always haunted him became real and his diaries were so vivid, they must be true; and what is the source of the green light, glowing in the apple tree? Gareth learns a little more about his strange heritage; he learns about the stranger, the wizard, his grandfather. He learns the truth about himself and the task he is destined to carry out: to return the golden stone to the ancient, magical Silver City, Tara. The dwarf's instructions are not clear, but he must follow them nonetheless. With Kit and three schoolboys, who are both reluctant and unwelcome, Gareth goes on his quest. But can they reach Tara or will the evil that pursues them, drive them back?
