For his final assignment, he chooses his partner based on the probability of success, and Joy Collingwood is the very best. That he can prove to her the future isn't all puppies and marshmallows is an added bonus. Joy is thrilled to help Malcolm, but their different methods threaten the success of their collaboration. If they can't find some common ground, they'll fail. What she doesn't expect is that their common ground will be her bed and her deepest secret will be revealed.
