The beauty of St. Lukes Gospel, and its peculiar significance for a Greek mind, has been exhibited with singular grace and tenderness by Cardinal Newman. The Gospel which Csecilius hands to the Greek girl, Callista, is the Gospel of St. Luke. She recurred to the parchment and to the Bishops words, here you will see Who it is that we love, or words to that effect. She opened it at length and read. It was the writing of a provincial Greek; elegant, however, and marked with that simplicity which was to her taste the elementary idea of a classic author. It was addressed to one Theophilus, and professed to be a carefully digested and verified account of events which had already...
